Complying with Federal Civil Rights Program Requirements

Ensuring Access to Federally Assisted Programs

Federal laws prohibit recipients (and subrecipients) of federal financial assistance from discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, or disability in funded program or activities, not only in respect to employment practices but also in the delivery of services or benefits. Federal law also prohibits funded programs or activities from discriminating on the basis of age in the delivery of services or benefits.

Providing Services to Limited English Proficiency (LEP) Individuals

In accordance with Department of Justice Guidance pertaining to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000d, recipients (and subrecipients) of federal financial assistance must take reasonable steps to provide meaningful access to their programs and activities for persons with limited English proficiency (LEP). For more information on the civil rights responsibilities that recipients have in providing language services to LEP individuals, please refer to <http://www.lep.gov>.

Ensuring Equal Treatment of Faith-Based Organizations and Safeguarding Constitutional Protections Related to Religion

The United States Department of Justice (DOJ) regulation below has been modified and now applies not just to faith-based organizations but includes all VOCA subrecipients.

The DOJ regulation, Partnerships with Faith-Based and Other Neighborhood Organizations, 28 C.F.R. pt. 38, prohibits all recipient organizations, whether they are law enforcement agencies, governmental agencies, educational institutions, houses of worship, or faith-based organizations, from using financial assistance from the DOJ to fund explicitly religious activities. Explicitly religious activities include worship, religious instruction, or proselytization. While funded organizations may engage in non-funded explicitly religious activities (e.g., prayer), they must hold them separately from the activities funded by the DOJ, and recipients cannot compel beneficiaries to participate in them. The regulation also makes clear that organizations participating in programs funded by the DOJ are not permitted to discriminate in the provision of services on the basis of a beneficiary’s religion, religious belief, a refusal to hold a religious belief, or a refusal to attend or participate in a religious practice. Funded faith-based organizations must also provide written notice to beneficiaries, advising them that if they should object to the religious character of the funded faith-based organization, the funded faith-based organization will take reasonable steps to refer the beneficiary to an alternative service provider. For more information on the regulation, please see the DOJ, Office of Justice Programs, Office for Civil Rights’ (OCR) website at <https://ojp.gov/about/ocr/partnerships.htm>.

Faith-based organizations should also note that the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act (Safe Streets Act) of 1968, as amended, 34 U.S.C. §10228(c); the Victims of Crime Act of 1984, as amended, 34 U.S.C. § 20110(e); the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, as amended, 34 U.S.C. § 11182(b); and VAWA, as amended, 34 U.S.C. § 12291(b)(13), contain prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of religion in employment. Despite these nondiscrimination provisions, the DOJ has concluded that it may construe the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) on a case-by-case basis to permit some faith-based organizations to receive DOJ funds while taking into account religion when hiring staff, even if the statute that authorizes the funding program generally forbids recipients from considering religion in employment decisions. Please consult with the OCR if you have any questions about the regulation or the application of RFRA to the statutes that prohibit discrimination in employment.

Nondiscrimination Notification

DPS VOCA subrecipient agencies must have a method of notifying employees, clients, customers, or program participants that the subrecipient agency does not discriminate in employment practices or delivery of services and must have a written policy that includes the procedures for filing a complaint, and the names and contact information for the agencies that receive complaints.

Discrimination Complaints

Employees, clients, customers, or program participants of a DPS VOCA subrecipient who wish to file a complaint of discrimination, may file a complaint directly with the subrecipient; or with the Arizona Department of Public Safety VOCA Administration Unit (VOCACivilRights@azdps.gov); the Arizona Office of the Attorney General, Office for Civil Rights (<http://azaq.gov/civil-rights/>); or the Office for Civil Rights (OCR), Office of Justice Programs, Department of Justice (<https://www.ojp.gov/program/civil-rights-office/filing-civil-rights-complaint>).

Submitting Findings of Discrimination

If in the three years prior to the date of the grant award, a federal or state court or administrative agency makes an adverse finding of discrimination after a due process hearing against the subrecipient agency on the grounds of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, or disability, the subrecipient shall forward a copy of the finding to the Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office for Civil Rights and DPS VOCA.

I, _____ (printed name of authorizing official), certify that _____ (name of subrecipient organization) will comply with the Federal Civil Rights Program requirements as outlined above.
