

BY THE PINAL COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS PROCLAMATION
NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK
APRIL 21-27, 2024

WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week was established in 1974 to commemorate the impact of volunteers in their communities and to encourage others to engage in service; and

WHEREAS, both individuals and volunteer groups play a crucial role in fostering a thriving, resilient community, enhancing the quality of life and well-being for residents of Pinal County; and

WHEREAS, we honor and celebrate every volunteer for their invaluable contributions to the betterment of Pinal County; and

WHEREAS, the 132 appointed residents of Pinal County serve a vital function by dedicating their time to various civic affairs through eighteen (18) Boards and Commissions; and

WHEREAS, our volunteer workforce represents a significant asset; and today, we commend those who have stepped forward to serve on a Board or Commission, acknowledging their dedication during our Annual Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, the Pinal County Board of Supervisors, do hereby designate April 21 through 27, 2024, as "National Volunteer Week" in Pinal County, Arizona, and urge all residents of Pinal County to explore opportunities to contribute to our community. Proclaimed this 24th day of April, 2024.
