AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and the mutual promises and conditions set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. TERM. Based upon appropriate finding, this IGA is effective on July 1, 2024, and will continue through June 30, 2025, unless sooner terminated or further extended pursuant to the provisions of this IGA. This IGA will automatically renew annually for up to five (5) supplemental one-year terms with the final term ending June 30, 2030.

2. TERMINATION.

   a. Mutual Termination. The Parties, by mutual written agreement, may terminate or cancel this IGA at any time for any reason.

   b. Termination for Convenience/Termination Without Cause. A Party may terminate or cancel this IGA for any reason, with or without just cause, if the Party wishing to terminate this IGA provides advance written notice to the other Party of such intent no later than December 31 for a termination effective the following July 1. This timeframe for advance written notice is required because the Parties acknowledge that COUNTY and DISTRICT may incur substantial expenses based on their participation in this IGA.

   c. Termination for Cause/Termination for Breach. A Party may terminate or cancel this IGA if the other Party materially fails to perform or comply with any provision of this IGA, and fails to remedy the default within fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice of the default.

   d. Non-appropriation of Funds. The Parties recognize and acknowledge that both Parties are governmental entities and this IGA's validity is based upon the availability of public funding. In the event public funds are not appropriated for the performance of a Party's obligations under this IGA, then the Party to whom public funds are not appropriated shall notify the other Party in writing of any such non-allocation of funds at the earliest possible date, and this IGA shall automatically expire without penalty to the Party that public funds are not appropriated. If a Party's allocation of funds is reduced, then the scope of this IGA may be reduced, if appropriate, or this IGA may be cancelled without further duty or obligation. The Parties recognize that appropriation is a legislative act and is beyond the control of the Parties.

   e. Conflict of Interest. This IGA is subject to cancellation pursuant to A.R.S. §38-511, the pertinent provisions of which are incorporated herein by reference.

   f. Force Majeure. Except for the duty to pay contracted prices for goods or services actually provided, neither Party shall be liable in any manner for any delay or failure that last longer than thirty (30) days to perform its obligations under this IGA arising out of or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond such Party's reasonable control, including, without limitation, acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; civil or military disturbances; acts of terrorism; sabotage; strikes; pandemics; epidemics; viral or communicable disease outbreaks; quarantines; riots; power failures; computer failure and any such circumstances beyond a Party's reasonable control as may cause interruption, loss or malfunction of utility, transportation, computer (hardware or software), or telephone communication service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority; governmental emergency action; changes to applicable laws and regulations; or inability to obtain labor, material, equipment or transportation. A Party claiming the benefit of this provision shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of any such event, (a) provide written notice to the other Party of the nature and extent of any such Force Majeure condition; and, if practicable, (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to remove any such causes and resume performance under this IGA.

g. Any termination of this IGA shall not relieve the Parties of their responsibility for costs incurred prior to the effective date of the termination.

3. EXTENSION. The Parties, by mutual written agreement, may extend this IGA at any time.

4. AMENDMENT. The Parties, by mutual written agreement, may amend or supplement the terms of this IGA at any time.
