Runner Flow at Aid Stations:

The runners enter Pinal County at mile 150 on the course. At this point in the run there are over 100 miles separating the first and last runners, this equates to about 4 days' time separating the runners on the trails and as they come through the aid stations. Although there is a maximum of 350 participants in the run an aid station can expect to see approximately 50 runners throughout each day they are open. For example the Tortilla aid station would see its first runner on Sunday evening but it would take until Wednesday evening for the rest of the runners to make their way through.

At this point in the run there will also be a reduction in the number of runners on course. Runners who do not make it out of the aid stations by the cut off times are cut from the event. We usually have about a 65% finisher rate which equates to approximately 227 of the 350 runners making it through the entire course.

Parking at No Crew Aid Stations:

Only the aid station workers will be at the aid station, this includes the volunteers, medics and the HAM radio operator. Approximately 5 to 7 vehicles. A pick up truck may come out to deliver a resupply if needed. A staff photographer may come to the aid station to take photos. There are no runner crew or runner crew vehicles allowed at these locations.

Parking at Crew Access Aid Stations:

Some runners will choose to have a support crew. The support crew is usually made up of 1-4 people and are allowed one crew vehicle. The crew is allowed access to certain aid stations to meet with their runner. Crew access aid stations are determined by the availability of parking at the location. We have rules in place for crew to reduce the number of crew at an aid station at any time.

Crew Rules for Aid Station Access:

- Parking is very limited. Use the Live tracking to time your arrival within 30 minutes of runner arrival to the best of your ability. Crew must leave once their runner has left the aid station.
- Only one crew vehicle per runner
- Crew must exercise care to park only in legal or designated parking spaces, or the side of road when permitted.
- Crew must not park off road on flora and fauna. Plant and animal life in this area is very sensitive –we cannot allow parking off road. This may mean parking some distance from the aid station; please plan for this.
- Each crew vehicle must have and display the Arizona Monster 300 Crew Vehicle Access Pass to park at an aid station. Passes are available at runner check-in.
