What strategic priority/goal does this project address?: Victim Compensation

Applicable Supervisor District: all pinal county districts

Brief description of project:

The grant funds received would pay salary + EREs for the crime victim compensation coordinator position. In addition, monies from the Victim Compensation Benefit Allocation fund will be utilized to provide financial relief to crime victims who suffered from death, injury or mental distress related to the crime committed against them. In order to obtain these funds the victim has to submit an application for crime victims' compensation and the board members determine eligibility and reimbursement amount.
